POKANE. Wash., June 25 .-Dammarn pitched winning ball for the Indians and Essick did a beautiful stunt for the Mormons. Both pitchers deserve credit for their work in a battle which was nerveracking and muscle-wearing. Ward met with his first roast from the blenchers and grand stand when he called Rockenfelt out at the plate in a close decision when the run would have decided the game without the extra inning. But it was an impartial decision, and while Spokane lost by it there was a general disposition to stand by the umpire on scount of his exceptional work during Both pitchern were given the best of a run after a foul fly which looked safe up sgainst the big score board. Weed the stopped liners with one hand and Relly fairly pulled off all past laurels with a pick-up and throw to first in the third inning. He was the center of a sessition in the seventh inning, when of a close throw by Dammann he cut of Delmas at third after a collision which sent both players down.

Delmas was injured in the fall and Relly started to access him, when there was a solemn paure. The big chief planed guiltly toward the grand stand, rned around to face the ladies and en called softly to Umpire Ward to op the play. Everybody began to rulate on what had happened, and it as not until Rellly started walking deways toward the gate leading to the thoing accident which happened to the chef. Willie Hogg went out with the boss, who returned shortly wearing Hoggs trousers, and then the crowd relied their appreciation. The score:

Special to The Tribune D OISE, June 25.—Hoon's wildness and dispirited support lost the Miners their fourth consecutive game to oise today. The pitcher with the euphonious name had considerable difficulty in finding the plate and midget Spencer had a contract holding him. Six passes, hits, two passed balls, a wild pitch and four costly errors netted Boise eight runs. McFarlan worked like a well oiled water wheel and by rights the Miners should not have scored on him. He walked the first man up by way of en couragement. Transportation was not to be had thereafter. The hits were distributed one to an inning, excepting in the sixth, when the Miners managed to get three singles and should have scored more than one run but for a neat double play. Ward and Lally were on first and second when Shaffer straightened out a hard one at Babbit. George made a beautiful stop, slammed the bail to O'Conneil, retiring Lally, and Jack shot it to first and nipped Shaffer. Bandelin made two swell catches in right, Lally performed like a stake horse in left and Flannery was fast of the hoof in center. Jack O'Conneil was very much in the game, getting two runs and three hits, and accepting seven chances. The score: couragement. Transportation was not

Rowe, won the World's Fair handicap at Fair grounds today in 2:091/2. Eastern champion, Hermis, was second, three lengths behind. Moharib, owned by John W. Schorr, was six lengths behind him. Colonial Girl won the race very easily. The World's Fair handicap is at a mile and a quarter, and is worth $41,500 to the winner. The track was in fair condition and about six seconds

After a delay of seven minutes at the post, caused by the restlessness of Bugler, Moharib and Flying Torpedo, Starter A. B. Dade caught the field in alignment and gave the word to go. Redfern, on Hermis, was the quickest to get his mount into motion, followed closely Gold Heels, Moharib and Colonial Girl. Redfern immediately shot his mount to he outside of the track, where the go ing was better, followed closely by Gold Heels and Moharib.

Passing the stand the first time Hermis was leading by four lengths, running very easily, with Colonial Girl a length ahead of Moharlb, and Gold Heels, whose bad underplaning began to bother him, fourth. The others were running well bunched behind the three leaders.

Taking up the long run down the back stretch, Hermis showed the way leading by six lengths, with Colonial Girl running casy and a length sheaf of Moharib, Six Shooter, fifth, and Hernays, clearly outrun, ninth. Hermis carried the field to the half in 50½, a terrific pace for a slow track. Colonial Girl still hung on, running well, within herself. Moharib was third and Sambo fourth.

At the three-quarter pole Hermis seemed to have the race at his mercy, but little Booker, noticing that the Eastern horse faltered and was tiring rapidly, sent Colonial Girl after him. Redfern felt his mount tire under him and struck him twice with the whip, as the St. Louis horse ran up alongside of him. Hermis shot out into the lead again, but it was his dying effort. Colonial Girl was surely and speedily overhauling him. As they rounded into the stretch a crywent up from the fifty thousand spectators. "Colonial Girl wins," "Hermis has snough." Sure enough Hermis had shot his boit. Colonial Girl, beautifully ridden by A. W. Booker, had overhauled him before the turn for home was made and was going away.

Sporting Editor Tribune: The papers come out with a lovely write-up for Mr. Burns, the gentleman from Ogden, who wishes to fight the Utah State

Health department, or any six or eight fighters at one time. Now, for the edification of those who are determined to knock anything that is not handled by themselves, I will say that I will fight Mr. Burns, all alone by myself, on his own proposition: If he does not knock me out in twenty rounds I get set it all. If he puts me out I get 40 per cent of the net receipts. This is his

As to fighting Mr. Williams The gentleman is right about Mr. Williams being a fighter. He is just that much of a fighter that Burns, Reilly, Levell or Flynn could not be dragged into the or Flynn could not be dragged into the ring with him. I desire to say that I did not try to get on a fight with Williams, I would rather go on with a dub like Burns. I was the last of these fighters to be asked to fight Williams, the others all having frozen their lower extremities. I said I would take a chance. As to how long I will last that is no one's business but mine. If I can stand it the public ought to. All on earth I want is to find out whether or not I can fight, and the better the man the better it will suit me. If I wanted glory I certainly would not try fighting in Sait Lake, where absolutely no one can escape the hammer. If no one can escape the hammer. If Burns can whip me I am certainly a dub of the worst description, and I will never again talk about fighting as long as I live. Yours truly, EUGENE THOMPSON.

Copper-Colored People Gather at the Hump to Observe an Anniversary.

DUTTE, Mont., June 25.—Delegations from Flathead, Snake, Chippewas, Blackfeet and Lemhi tribes of Indians are in attendance at the "Sacred" dance given this year by the Crees at the Hump, about fourteen miles west of Butte.

Each year one of the tribes of North-west officiates at the conclave of the Indians which is considered by the redskins to be the greatest period in the year. The dance lasts for two days, continuing day and night, and is for the purpose of perpetuating in the minds of the young warriors the heroic deeds of their forefathers. The beating of the tom-toms and weird tooting of whistles of the Indians can be heard for miles about the Hump. As many as fifty Indians engage in the dance at one time, continuing until they drop exhausted. Other Indians stand ready to take the places of the warriors who drop.

EW YORK, June 25 .- Driven to the limit in the last few strides, the favorite, Irish Lad, won the $15,000 Advance stakes at Sheepshead Bay, favorite, Irish Lad, won the $15,000

Advance stakes at Sheepshead Bay, making a new world's record of 2:173-5 for the distance, one and three-eighths miles, the best previous record, made by Sabine in Chicago, July 5, 1284, being 2:184. Ort Wells was second and Bryn Mawr third. The crowd in attendance today was equal to that of Suburban day.

The field that made up the Advance stakes was one of the best that eyer faced the starter for this rich purse. Irish Lad was quoted at the good price of 5 to 2. The Drake-Gates combination bet heavily on Ort Wells, who closed at 3 to 1. Bryn Mawr, winner of the Brooklyn Derby, was quieter at 7 to 2, while The Picket was held at 4 to 1.

The horses made a good start and Irish Lad was the first to show, with Delhi second and Ort Wells third. The Picket was off in a good position, but in the rush for the rail was interfered with, which probably accounted for his bad race.

Passing the stand the first time, Irish Lad was leading by a head from Delhi, while Ort Wells ran third. The quarter was covered in 24 seconds. Making the turn into the back stretch and coming to the half-mile nole Delhi took the lead, with Irish Lad second, a length back. The time of the half was 48 2-5 seconds. Ort Wells was third, with Bryn Mawr and High Ball close up. Delhi was leading at the three-quarters, which was covered in 113, Irish Lad being in second place and going easily. Ort Wells was third, and he, too, was going in good easy stride.

place and going easily. Ort Wells was third, and he, too, was going in good easy stride.

The mile was covered in 1:35 flat, the fastest mile run in the East this year. The first pace had told on Delbi, and as the leaders swung past the mile post he slowly dropped back beaten. Hildebrand, on Irish Lad, at this point sent his mount to the lead, and as he flashed past the case and one-quarter pole in 2:04, the game son of Candlemas-Arrow Grass was a length ahead of Ort Wells, who had moved up as Delhi fell back.

It was at this point that the boys on the leaders began to ride hard. Irish Lad was ahead, but O'Nell on Ort Wells began to gain. He was however, unable to head Irish Lad, who passed under the wire a winner by a short head in 2:172-5. Ort Wells was five lengths in front of Bryn Mawr. It was one of the greatest races, one of the gamest finishes, seen in many a day in the East.

As Hildebrand rode Irish Lad back to the judges' stand, a great storm of cheers proclaimed the popularity of his victory, while the band struck up "The Wearing of the Green," the colors of Irish Lad being green, with white hoops on the sleeve.
